Week Beginning: Monday 5 July 2021

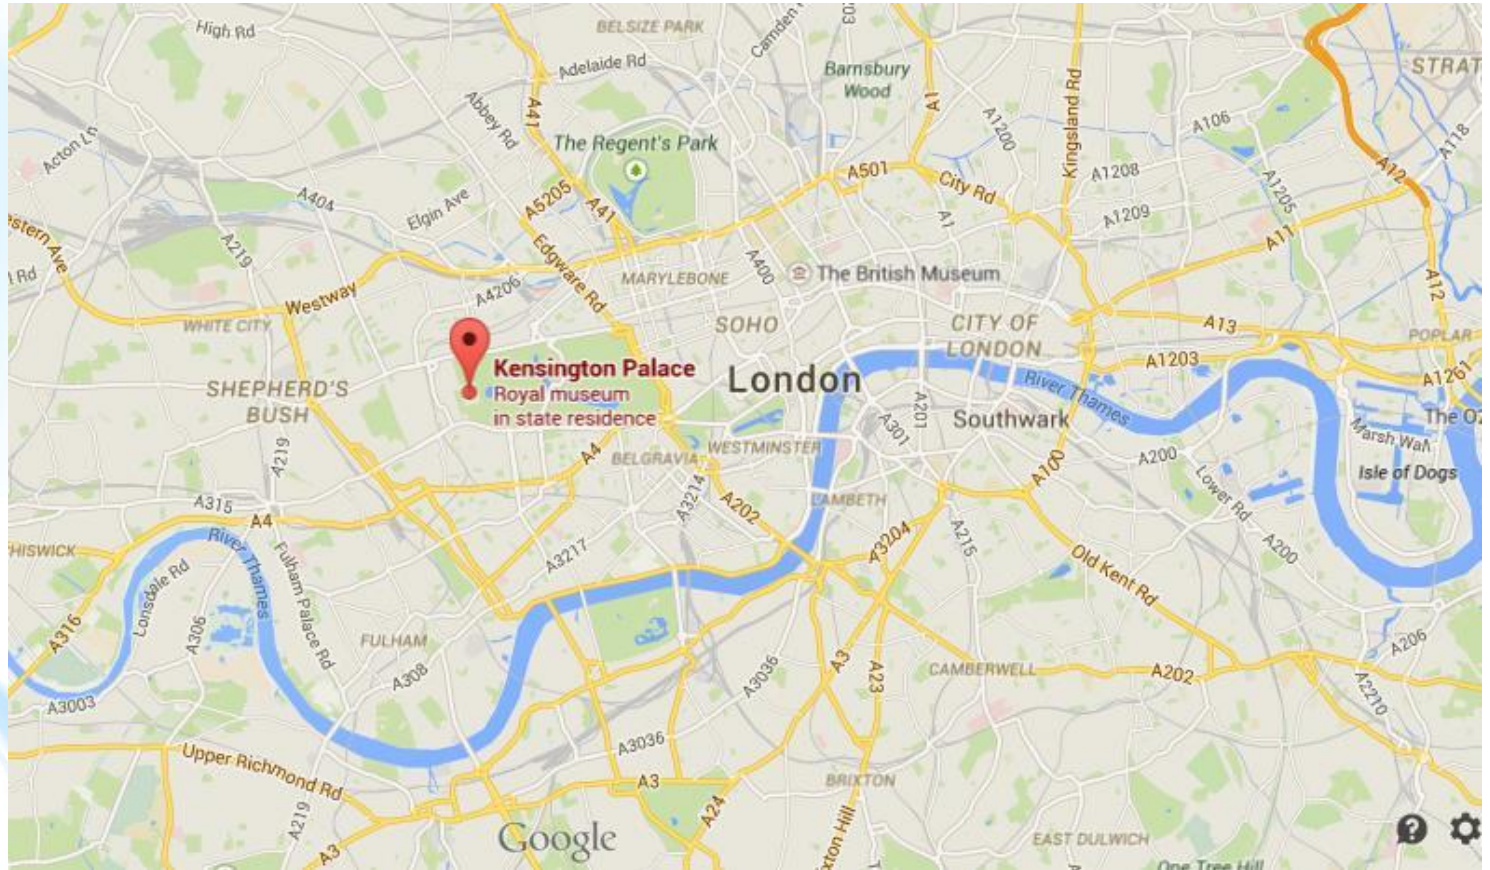

This Week in Our World...

This week the focus of 'Our World' is the unveiling of a statue at Kensington Palace of Diana, Princess of Wales.

A special ceremony was held last Thursday, to unveil a statue of Princess Diana.

The story so far...

Diana, Princess of Wales, was married to Prince Charles and was Prince William and Harry's Mum. She died in 1997.

She married Prince Charles on 29 July 1981 and Prince William was born in 1982 and Prince Harry in 1984. Sadly, Charles and Diana divorced in 1996. Throughout her life, Diana was very passionate about charity work and had a special rapport with children.

The special statue was commissioned by William and Harry in 2017, and has been made by artist Ian Rank-Broadley, whose portrait of the Queen appears on all UK coins.

The statue shows Dianna with three children. William and Harry said: "Our mother touched so many lives. We hope the statue will help all those who visit Kensington Palace to reflect on her life."

The statue, which was placed in the Sunken Garden at Kensington Palace in London, was revealed in a small ceremony on 1 July to mark what would have been Diana's 60th birthday.

Due to Coronavirus restrictions, the amount of people allowed to attend was limited. Princes William and Harry unveiled the statue and shared a personal statement about their Mum.

“Today, on what would have been our mother’s 60th birthday, we remember her love, strength and character – qualities that made her a force for good around the world, changing countless lives for the better.”

“Every day, we wish she were still with us, and our hope is that this statue will be seen forever as a symbol of her life and her legacy.”
